

Factory System Build Support – Installation, Alignment, Training

Once the design has been completed and system performance has been characterized, we provide all the required services to help you ramp up for volume production, quickly. This includes providing training and tools for encoder system installation, alignment and QA. It can also include JIT/Kanban strategies to maximize your productivity while minimizing your inventories. Once complete, the Odyssey program closes the cycle with the development and training of your field service team.

Factory System Build Support Installation, Alignment, Training

- Training & Certification
- Installation Tools & Support
- Alignment Tools & Support
- MicroE Quality Program
- MicroE Supplier Program
- E-Commerce Program
- JIT/Kanban Support